A member may be placed under restraint (see Manual for Courts-Martial (MCM) 1984, Rule for Court-Martial (R.C.M.) 304, as to types of restraint available) by military authorities pending delivery to state or federal authorities. Such restraint may be imposed upon receipt of information establishing probable cause to believe that the member committed an offense, and upon reasonable belief such restraint is necessary. Such restraint may continue only for such time as is reasonably necessary to effect the delivery to civilian authorities. As to the type of analysis to be undertaken in determining whether probable cause exists and whether a reasonable belief exists that restraint is necessary, see MCM 1984, R.C.M. 305(h)(2)(B), and its following discussion. authorities for assistance in returning members, civilian employees, and dependents from overseas (subpart C of this part).
